- (d) A reference to conduct includes an omission, statement or undertaking, whether or not in writing.
- (e) A reference to time is to Sydney time, unless otherwise stated.

4 / NOMINATION AND SELECTION PROCESS FOR THE 2023 PACIFIC GAMES TEAM

4.1 The process for the nomination and selection of athletes for the Team is as follows:

- (a) No qualification system: For the avoidance of doubt, neither the International Federation for the Sport nor the Organising Committee will issue a qualification system, for the 2023 Pacific Games.
- (b) Nomination:
 - (i) Where the Organising Committee has decided to include the Sport on the programme for the 2023 Pacific Games, the National Federation must nominate athletes to the AOC for selection to the Team, respecting the maximum number of entries for the Sport as set out in the Pacific Games Council Charter and below at clause 4.1(b)(ii); and

(ii) The Australian quota for the Sport is limited to four male and four female athletes, with a maximum of two athletes per weight category. Weight categories are as per the current IJF senior weight categories plus an open weight category.

(c) Selection: From amongst the Nominated Athletes, the AOC is responsible for determining which athletes should be selected to the Team, respecting the maximum number of entries for the Sport as set out in the Pacific Games Council Charter and above at clause 4.1(b)(ii).

(d) For the avoidance of doubt:

(i) all selected athletes are eligible to be entered by the National Federation (in its absolute discretion) into the open weight category for each gender; and

(ii) all selected athletes entered into the individual events are eligible to be entered by the National Federation (in its absolute discretion) into the mixed team which is comprised of 3 men and 3 women who meet the weight classifications set by the Pacific Games Council (Men: -73kg, -90kg and +90kg and women: -57kg, -70kg and +70 kg).

5 / NOMINATION BY JUDO AUSTRALIA

5.5 Extenuating Circumstances

(a) In determining whether an Athlete has satisfied the criteria set out in clause 5.4, the National Federation may, in its absolute discretion have regard to Extenuating Circumstances.

(a) The National Federation may consider an Athlete's non-attendance at an Event or Events to be an Extenuating Circumstance in its absolute discretion. The National Federation may require an Athlete to undergo a medical examination and/or seek additional information or documentation, as a condition of treating the Athlete's non-attendance at an Event or Events as an Extenuating Circumstance.

(b) For the purposes of this clause, Extenuating Circumstances means:

- (i) injury or illness;
- (ii) equipment failure;
- (iii) travel delays;
- (iv) bereavement or disability arising from death or serious illness of an immediate family member, which means a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling; or
- (v) any other factors considered by the National Federation to constitute extenuating circumstances.

5.6 Submission of Nominations

(a) The National Federation must notify Athletes of the Nomination Date in writing.

(b) The National Federation must nominate Athletes to the AOC by the Nomination Date.

(c) The AOC may, in its absolute discretion extend the Nomination Date for the National Federation for any reason.

(d) The AOC may, in its absolute discretion, accept a nomination submitted after the Nomination Date or the Sport Entries Deadline.

5.7 Non-Compliance

If an Athlete breaches any of the requirements of this Nomination and Selection criteria, the AOC may suspend or terminate the Athlete's selection to the Team or otherwise impose a sanction prescribed by the disciplinary procedures set out in the 2023 Pacific Games Team Membership Agreement.

5.8 No Appeal Grounds

The appeal mechanism set out in the AOC Olympic Team Selection By-Law does not apply to the Team.

5.9 Amendments

(a) This document may only be amended with the written consent of the AOC.

(b) The AOC may amend the Selection Criteria set out at Appendix 1 from time to time in its absolute discretion. If advised by the AOC of such an amendment, the National Federation must update Appendix 1 and re-upload an updated version of this document to the National Federation's website and advise Athletes of the amendments.

(c) Where the AOC forms a reasonable opinion that this document (other than the Selection Criteria set out at Appendix 1), requires amendment, the AOC must notify the National Federation of the required amendments. The National Federation must work collaboratively with the AOC in good faith to amend this document to the satisfaction of the AOC.

5.10 Governing law

This document is governed by the laws of the State of New South Wales.

APPENDIX 1
